

Maui Day 2

Most our day was spent at the resort's pool. We had drinks, watched the maintenance cut down a banana tree with bananas. The pool had a dark interior, which resembled a black-sand ocean.

Our 2nd day on Maui we stayed at another resort, The Westin Ka'anapali Ocean Resort Villas North (stayed 2 nights)

The suite/villa had a full kitchen with microwave/convection oven. The master bedroom's bathroom had a juczzi tub with windows opening up to the room a large shower.

We had a nice casual dinner at Maui Brewing Company (they even brewed their own soda & root beer). Jason did the beer-tasting thing, while Rick & I had a cola & root beer.
